Hixburg

Hixburg, Oct. 7.- Cars began to roll by. A light came on in Walker's Presbyterian Church at 7:00 P. M. on Thursday. Some wondered what could be going on at that time of the week. It turned out to be a church party honoring Dr. Twyman Williams on his 10th anniversary as pastor.

Besides preaching, an outstanding feature of his ministry has been community-minded visitation of the sick and troubled regardless of denomination or affiliation.

Marshall Goin, Pioneer president, had charge of the program. He presented Dr. Williams with a gold tie clasp and cuff links from the Pioneers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burrell, who have sung on T.V., added to the pleasure of the occasion by singing two duets. She played the guitar, and he played an electric guitar.

The audience, and especially the Pioneers with whom he had worked, was greatly pleased when Dr. Williams announced that Wilbur Maxwell, a Seminary student, will assist in the evening services at Walker's Church. Mr. Maxwell will preach at 7:30 P. M. on October 12.

After singing two hymns, refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. M. Erwin, of Mount Ulla, N. C., is expected on Sunday October 12, to be the guest of her brother, Mr. W. D. Hix, until Thursday. Miss Carrie Hix will be in Richmond next Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Field and Miss Margaret Davis, of Culpeper, will be luncheon guests of Mrs. Boyd Ford and Mrs. H. M. Marshall on Wednesday. From there they will go to several homes of former relatives in the Hixburg community.

When the table was spread in Mrs. Grace Williams' backyard on Sept. 26, and the Home Demonstration members were eating, one big pie in a pyrex dish quickly disappeared. There was a clamor! Who made that pie? What kind was it? Next they wanted the recipe, which follows:

Cream ½ cup of butter
3 eggs (beat in one at a time)
Mix in ½ cup of damson or plum preserves
1 teaspoon of vanilla
Bake in a crust.

Rich in Vitamin

Besides adding color and flavor to meals, green peppers are rich sources of vitamins C and A. One medium popper will provide the daily requirements of vitamin C. It also contains small amounts of riboflavin, thiamin, and niacin.

Richwood

Richwood, Oct. 7.- "Righteous lips are the delight of kings, and they love him that speaketh right." —Proverb.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ferguson and daughters, Judy and Jane and Mr. and Mrs. Holmsey Ferguson were the guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Wooldridge.

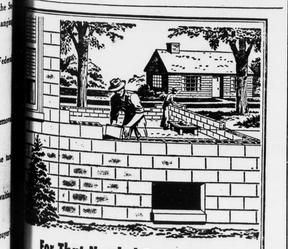
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Woodall visited Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pugh.

Mr. Tom Marsh is spending sometime in Lynchburg with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Wooldridge visited Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Esmond Pugh and family.

Mr. G. P. Brannan and daughters, Val and Georgie Belle were in Lynchburg on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pugh visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Grishaw and family at Evergreen.



For That Needed Extra Room
Expand Your House with CONCRETE

It's easy to make your home a better home by remodeling with concrete. Plan now to build that long-needed recreation room, laundry or utility room, extra bedroom or attached garage with economical concrete masonry. Such improvements require little or no maintenance and add convenience and value to your home.

Concrete masonry units can be laid in many attractive patterns—left in natural gray tones or beautifully finished in one of a variety of colors with portland cement paint. Your family will enjoy the beauty, convenience, comfort, durability and lasting economy of concrete improvements.

Oakville

Oakville, Oct. 7.- Oakville was saddened very much Saturday morning when Mrs. Bessie Cobbs passed away. She had been sick for some time.

The W. S. C. S. of Mt. Comfort Church will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church, with Mrs. Maggie Gardner and Ethel as hostesses. Mrs. A. M. Johnston has charge of the program.

We are very glad to say that Mrs. Wesley Coleman, who was operated on last Wednesday at the Virginia Baptist Hospital, is getting on fine. She is expected to return home one day this week.

Mrs. Rob Lucado's little nephew has returned to his home in Richmond, after spending several weeks with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lewis and children, of Madison Heights spent Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lewis.

The Oakville Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Alton Moore Thursday afternoon with good attendance. Mrs. Clarke Moore gave the demonstration on new fabric materials.

Miss Bernice Harvey spent the week-end with Mrs. Maggie Gardner and Ethel.

Vera

Vera, Oct. 2.- "The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof, the world and they that dwell therein." —Psalms 24-1.

September has been a busy month. It passed off so quickly, it seems.

We were sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Raymond Lawson. So many go suddenly. We extend sympathy to his family.

Mrs. Helene Harvey and Mrs. Richard Carson were supper guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Lester B. Harvey taught the Year Book of the New Hope Missionary Society on Tuesday night, at New Hope Church.

Miss Harriette Harvey visited her sister, Mrs. Richard Carson Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reynolds on Thursday night.

Mr. Lewis Turnes visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. O'Brien on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Brown celebrated their Golden Anniversary on Sunday. They had a large crowd and received a lot of nice gifts, and all went away wishing them many happy returns.

Week-end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey were Mr. Lewis Turnes, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carson and Sylvia, Marguerite Gilliam, and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Moses, and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watson.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Dad Knows His "A-Bee-C's"

Quite a "to do" on Main Street yesterday—lucky that Dad Blake was on the scene.

Seems a swarm of bees appeared from some place and hovered low over the sidewalk between the bank and Post Office. Everybody got sort of panicky. Then Dad appeared...

He borrowed a woman's purse-mirror and flashed a beam of sunlight into the swarm. Then he swung the beam slowly across the street into the eaves of Allen's warehouse. Right! The bees followed the light and roosted there.

From where I sit, every problem needs just one good solution. And it occurs to me that in living with our neighbors, our Founding Fathers gave us the right idea. It's called "tolerance." In practice it means that your choice of tea or buttermilk should be as honored as my preference for a glass of beer. Makes for a "hive" of good neighbors.

To match Mrs. M's "chef's touch"...

...you need an
AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC RANGE

A steak is for looking, as well as eating, in Mrs. Modern's book. And that's the way it comes from the radiant broiler of her Electric Range. No burned spots or half cooked areas . . . but a smooth, tempting brown from tip to tenderloin.

And that garland of potatoes! Every one crisped to perfection . . . because fat stays at exactly the right temperature on the Automatic Range Top Element. The same wonderful element can simmer soup or cereal with never a scorch . . . or keep a griddle at ideal heat for making pancakes, batch after golden batch.

Why not be Mrs. Modern, yourself? Visit your Electric Appliance Dealer soon . . . and see handsome Electric Ranges and smart built-in models that give a true "chef's touch" to every meal you serve.
